

Irene Rose Juillet

NAPLES, Fla. — Irene Rose Juillet, 75, died Aug. 5 at Brighton Gardens, Naples, Fla.

Born in Clifton, Juillet and her family moved to Hackettstown in 1958. There she taught school at St. Mary's and Central School before moving to Naples in 1979. For 11 years she taught at St. Elizabeth Seton before retiring in 1993. During this time, she was also very active in real estate with Downing-Frye Realty until she became ill in January, 1998.

She was a eucharistic minister at both St. Ann's and St. Elizabeth Seton Catholic Church. In her free time, she enjoyed attending weekly German classes, exercising at the Wellness Center, bike riding, beach get-togethers, and sharing the love and companionship of her family and many dear friends in Naples.

Her husband, Eugene, died in 1995.

She is survived by her daughter and son-in-law, Suzanne and Ed Clarke of Naples; son and daughter-in-law, Gene and Cindy Juillet of Pennsylvania; three grandchildren, Ryan Clarke, Amanda Juillet and Amber Juillet; two brothers, Norbert and Edmond Tiemers of New Jersey; two sisters-in-law, and several cousins, nieces, and nephews.

A Mass of Christian was held at St. Elizabeth Seton Catholic Church. Arrangements were made by Fuller Funeral Home in Naples.

In lieu of flowers, donations can be made in her name to the St. Elizabeth Seton Building Fund, 2760 52nd Terrace S.W., Naples, Fla., 34116.
