

DONALD M. KINSEY
HACKETTSTOWN — Services will be held Friday for Donald M. Kinsey, 69, of 127 Mountain Ave., who was pronounced dead on arrival at the Hackettstown Community Hospital on Tuesday.

Rites will be conducted by the Rev. William Orr at the Cochran Funeral Home at 1:30 p.m. Interment will be in Union Cemetery.

Born September 21, 1904 in Hackettstown, Mr. Kinsey was a son of the late John S. and Lucy Cutzler Kinsey. He lived in this area all of his life. An Army veteran of World War II, he was a self-employed painter and decorator before his retirement a year ago. He was of the Presbyterian faith.

Survivors are his widow, Mrs. Margaret Pace Kinsey; a son, Thomas Smith of Hackettstown; three brothers, John D. and Robert of Hackettstown and Ralph of Washington; two sisters, Mrs. Marguerite Klie of Rutherford and Mrs. Mary Kathermann of Dover, and a grandchild.

He was superintendent of painting at Centenary College for Women for 12 years.
