

OBITUARY

Miss Louise Kluppelberg, who was the sole survivor of the family of Frederick Kluppelberg, bearing that name, passed away Tuesday night. The greater part of her seventy-one years had been passed in Hackettstown.

Frederick Kluppelberg opened a store on the site of the Cooke's Department Store on Main street. His son, William and daughter, Louise, assisted him until he turned the business over to his son. After this the brother and sister conducted the business until Williams' health failed about fifteen years ago and he sold the business to Harry Nolan. William passed away in June, 1919, after a long illness.

Following his death Miss Kluppelberg made her home with her niece, Mrs. William MacClellan, for two years. Since then she had made the Hackettstown Inn her home.

The Hackettstown Gazette: December 19, 1930

NAME: Louise Kluppelberg

DATE OF DEATH: December 16, 1930