

OBITUARY

Alys Knapik

Alys Knapik, 56, of Lincoln Park, formerly of Hackettstown, died Jan. 12 at the Lincoln Park Intermediate Care Center after a long illness.

Born in Paterson, she was the daughter of the late Joseph and Alice Quackenbush Knapik. She lived in Hackettstown and New York City before moving to Lincoln Park in 1983.

Ms. Knapik was a homemaker.

She is survived by a son, Joseph McCauley of Allamuchy; and two sisters, Joette Trofimuk of Santa Fe, N.M., and Elaine Curcio of Key Biscayne, Fla.

Funeral services were held on Jan. 16 from the Cochran Funeral Home, 905 High St., Hackettstown, to a service at St. Mark's Mission, Long Valley. Interment was in the Union Cemetery, Hackettstown.

The Star-Gazette: January 21, 1993

NAME: Alys Knapik

DATE OF DEATH: January 12, 1993