

ver.

Myrtle Knill

HACKETTSTOWN — Myrtle Knill, 84, died Wednesday at the House of the Good Shepherd, a retirement home, after a short illness.

She was born in Sunbury, Pa., and lived in Mountain Lakes and Morristown before moving to Hackettstown 20 years ago.

Mrs. Knill was a homemaker.

She was a member of the Trinity United Methodist Church, Hackettstown, the Hackettstown Women's Club and the House of the Good Shepherd Auxiliary, Hackettstown.

Survivors include a son, Charles, Convent Station; a daughter, Virginia Cardozo, Connecticut; five grandchildren; and three great-grandchildren.

Arrangements are by Cochran Funeral Home, 905 High St.

Daily Record
January 8, 1988

OBITUARY

Myrtrel Knill
Date of Death
January 6, 1988