

Albert L. Koehler

HACKETTSTOWN — Albert L. Koehler died Tuesday at Hackettstown Community Hospital after a long illness.

He was born in Brooklyn, N.Y., and came here four and a half years ago from Hopatcong.

Mr. Koehler was a graduate of New York University and was employed as a corporate trust officer at the First National State Bank, Newark. Since his retirement in 1980, Mr. Koehler had been the owner of the Cozy Corner Deli, Willow Grove Street, here.

He is survived by his wife, Vera; and a stepson, Steven Widmaier, at home.

Arrangements are by the Cochran Funeral Home, 905 High St., Hackettstown.
