

OBITUARY

Edith Koenecke

798 Willow Grove St., Hackettstown, N.J. 07840

Edith Koenecke, 91, of Hackettstown, died Feb. 5, at the House of the Good Shepherd, Hackettstown.

Born in New York City, on May 19, 1905, she was a daughter of the late John and Edith Koenecke. She lived in Bellport, L.I. and Mt. Vernon, N.Y. before moving to Hackettstown in 1992.

She was a secretary for the Union Carbide Corp. for many years retiring in 1966.

She was a member of the Trinity United Methodist Church, Hackettstown; member of the Fireplace Literary Club, Brookhaven, Bellport, L.I.; member of the Bellhaven-Brookhaven Historical Society and the Garden Club; member of the Hackettstown Women's Club.

She is survived by her twin sister, Ethel Koenecke of Hackettstown; and a nephew, John Koenecke of Long Valley.

A memorial service will be announced at a later date. Interment was in Kensico Cemetery, Valhalla. Arrangements were by Cochran Funeral Home, Hackettstown.

Memorials may be made to the House of the Good Shepherd,

The Star-Gazette: February 20, 1997

NAME: Edith Koenecke

DATE OF DEATH: February 5, 1997