

Frank R. Kohler

HACKETTSTOWN — Frank Robert Kohler, Hamilton Drive, died Saturday at Hackettstown Community Hospital. He was 64.

Born in Hillside, he lived in Springfield for most of his life before moving here eight years ago. He was the former owner of the Utility Welding Co. in Chatham from 1948-1974. He was currently employed as a layout worker for the Witte Co., Washington, N.J.

He had served 10 years as a committee chairman for Troop 18, Boys Scouts of America, of Florham Park.

He was an Army Air Force veteran of World War II, serving with the Pacific Theater. He flew more than 50 missions and was awarded several Bronze Stars.

He is survived by his wife, Jane Cooper; two sons, William, Stanhope, and Andrew, Lake Hiawatha.

Arrangements are by the Scala Memorial Home, 124 High St., here.

* DAILY Record,
November 15, 1982.

OBITUARY:
Frank R. Kohler,
Date of Death,
November 13, 1982.