

OBITUARY

Dorothy J. (Evasick) Korkos, 84, of Hackettstown, NJ formerly of Clifton, NJ, died Thursday, May 13, 2010, at Heath Village, Hackettstown, NJ. Born in Passaic, NJ she was raised in Garfield as a child and resided in Clifton most of her adult life except for a few years living in Warren, NJ. Mrs. Korkos had been employed at Deluxe Check Printers, West Caldwell, NJ for about twenty-five years until her retirement. During her retirement she was a still life artist and won several awards for her paintings and had gallery showings at the Morristown Library. Mrs. Korkos was a parishioner of St. Mary's R.C. Church, Passaic and was a member of the Warren-Somerset Leisure Club, Warren, NJ and the Warren Senior Citizen Club, Warren, NJ.

She was predeceased by her husband, Edward J. Korkos; two brothers, Charles Evasick and Edward Evasick; and two sisters, Rose Kelnhofer and Helen Evasick. She is survived by one son, Gregory E. Korkos and his wife, Patricia of Bangor, Pennsylvania; one daughter, Kathleen S. Siver and her husband, Wayne of Lake Hopatcong, NJ; one sister, Florence Kopko of Elmwood Park; five grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

Funeral Services will be 9:15 am Saturday from Bizub-Quinlan Funeral Home, 515 Lexington Ave., Clifton and 10:00 am from St. Mary's R.C. Church, Passaic. Interment St. Mary's Cemetery Saddle Brook. Visiting Saturday 8:15 am 9:15 am. Please visit www.bizub.com for online condolences and driving directions.

The Courier News: May 15, 2010

NAME: Korkos, Dorothy J. (nee Evasick)

DATE OF DEATH: May 13, 2010