

OBITUARY

Edward Kowalick

Services were held for Edward Kowalick, 70, of Independence Township, who died Oct. 25 at Morristown Memorial Hospital after a long illness.

He was born in Independence Township and lived there his whole life.

Mr. Kowalick served as the mayor of Independence and was also a member of the council. For most of his life, he was a dairy farmer. With his wife, Catherine Kowal Kowalick, he owned and operated Island Dragway for 10 years.

He was a charter member of the Independence Fire Department; and a member of the Great Meadows Vegetable Co-op. He was a former member of the Warren County Mosquito Commission.

Mr. Kowalick is survived by his wife; three daughters, Patricia Dinger of Washington, Georgette Ritter of Hackettstown and Kathy DeMarcky of Hackettstown; two sisters, Violet Cebrynski of Great Meadows and Katherine Koltutsky of Hollywood, Calif.; five grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

In lieu of flowers, the family requests donations to the Independence First Aid Squad.

Interment was in Pequest Union Cemetery, Great Meadows. The Cochran Funeral Home of Hackettstown was in charge of arrangements.
