

OBITUARY

Eldor C. Krisak

Eldor C. Krisak, 85, of Hackettstown, died Dec. 10, 2009 at Warren Hospital in Phillipsburg after a short illness.

Born July 21, 1924 in Syracuse, N.Y., he was a son of the late Thomas and Mary Krisak.

Mr. Krisak lived in the Bronx before moving to Hackettstown 44 years ago. He was vice president of sales for A.M. Best in Oldwick for 48 years, retiring in 1996.

He was a member of St. Mary's Church of the Assumption and an active member of Joyce Kilmer Council 2483, Knights of Columbus, both in Hackettstown. Mr. Krisak was an Army veteran of World War II.

Surviving are his wife, Arlene Scott Krisak; two sons, Thomas and wife Christina of Phillipsburg and Robert and wife Julie of Coral Springs, Fla.; two daughters, Kathleen and companion James Lord III of Hackettstown and Colleen and husband George Derco of Independence Township; and three grandchildren, Thomas, Julia and James.

A funeral Mass was held Dec. 14 at St. Mary's Church of the Assumption with Father David Pekola officiating. Interment was in Pequest Union Cemetery, Great Meadows.

The family would prefer piousness in order that they may be donated to the church for Christmas Mass.

Arrangements were by the Scala Memorial Home in Hackettstown.
