

JOHN T. LANE
HACKETTSTOWN —

Funeral services were held Monday for John T. Lane, 34, of Hatchery Road, who was pronounced dead on arrival Thursday at Hackettstown Community Hospital.

Born April 21, 1943 in Passaic, he moved here from Pleasantville in 1968.

He was a senior fisheries biologist for the New Jersey Division of Fish, Game and Shell fisheries at the hatchery here. He was a member of the American Fisheries Society, Washington D.C. and the Wildlife Disease Association in Ames, Iowa.

He was a 1965 graduate of Iowa State University, Ames.

He is survived by his widow, the former Annie Curtin; two sons, Walter and Brian, both at home; a sister, Mrs. Judith Thompson of Lodi, and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Lane of Lodi.

Services were from the Cochran Funeral Home, Hackettstown, to Our Lady of the Mountain R.C. Church, Schooley's Mountain, for a Mass of Christian Burial, said by the Rev. George Dudak, pastor.

Interment was in the parish cemetery.
