

vice is in a large measure due to his zeal and energy.

Stephen C. Larison was a man of the strictest integrity of character and purpose. He was a man of worth and civic pride and he has left upon the community in which his life has been lived, and in which his memory will be honored, the impress of his strong personality and high purpose.

He is survived by his wife, one son and a daughter, and an adopted daughter. The funeral services will be held from his late home on Friday at 2 p. m. The services will be conducted by Dr. Owens of the Methodist church, of which he was a member. Mr. Larison was a member in most of the local secret and beneficial orders, being a Mason, an Odd Fellow, K. of P., Improved O. of R. M. and Merchant. His business interests were large and his competency secured.
