

Robert C. Lehman

INDEPENDENCE TWP. —

Robert C. Lehman of Great Meadows, formerly of Parsippany, died yesterday at Newton Memorial Hospital after a short illness. He was 52.

Born in St. Paul, Minn., he lived most of his life in Parsippany before moving here four years ago. He was a maintenance mechanic for Mobil Chemical Co., Washington Borough.

He was a Navy veteran of the Korean War.

Mr. Lehman was a member of Gethesame Lutheran Church and Moose Club Lodge 816 in Hackettstown and the Independence Township Fire Department.

He is survived by his wife, Marie Vanderburgh Madison; two sons, Robert S., Great Meadows, and Timothy J., St. Paul; four daughters, Sharon Ferriere, Branchville, Eleanor K. McCann, Great Meadows, and Nancy A. Blake and Tracy Bardyszewski, both of Hackettstown; five sisters, June Hanrahan and Dorothy Bateman, both of St. Paul, Marie Ruz-

• Daily Record,
June 30, 1984.

OBITUARY:
Robert C. Lehman
Date of Death
June 29, 1984.