

JOHN J. LEHR

HACKETTSTOWN

Services were held at the Morgan Funeral Home, 311 Main Street, Netcong, on Friday afternoon for John J. Lehr, 76, of 30 Riverside Gardens, Hackettstown, who died Wednesday, May 23rd at Dover General Hospital after a long illness. Rev. George Brant of St. James Episcopal Church officiated.

Born April 3, 1897, in New York City, he had lived here for the last six years and had retired in 1963 as an engineer for the Marine and Aviation in New York.

Mr. Lehr was a member of St. James Episcopal Church and served in the Army in World War I. He was also a member of the V.F.W. Lakeland Post 2847, Netcong, and the World War I Veterans, Northern Barracks, 2764.

He is survived by his wife, Edith and one stepbrother, Frank of East Rockaway, New York.

Interment was in Stanhope Union Cemetery.

Star-Gazette,
May 31, 1973

OBITUARY: John J. Lehr
Date of Death,
May 23, 1973