

MRS. OTTHINE A. LENDINO

Services for Mrs. Otthine A. Lendino of 316 Lafayette Street, a resident here for 40 years, were held Saturday afternoon at the Cochran Funeral Home. The Rev. Clarence W. Sickles, vicar of St. James' Episcopal Church, officiated, and burial was in Hackettstown Union Cemetery.

Mrs. Lendino, the widow of Michael Lendino, died on Thursday, December 29, 1955, in Trenton of a long illness. She was 71 and a native of Brooklyn. She was a member of Blue Ridge Post 164, American Legion Auxiliary.

Surviving are two sons, Vincent Lendino and George L. Brown, Sr., both of Hackettstown; a daughter, Mrs. Marcella Baldwin of New Providence; two brothers, Albert Larsen of Hackettstown and Edward Larsen of Dover, and a sister, Mrs. Saverine Baldwin of Freeport, L. I.

The Hackettstown Gazette: January 5, 1956

NAME: Otthine A. Lendino

DATE OF DEATH: December 29, 1955