

Eugene Lesino

Services were held Oct. 10 in the Scala Memorial Home, Hackettstown, for Eugene R. Lesino, 64, of Hackettstown, who died Oct. 8 in Hackettstown Community Hospital shortly after being admitted.

Born in North Bergen, he lived in Hackettstown most of his life.

Until his retirement, he was a sales engineer for International Mineral and Chemical Corp., Eastern Division, Detroit.

A veteran of World War II, Mr. Lesino served as a staff sergeant with the U.S. Army. He received the American Theater ribbon, the Air Medal, European-African-Middle Eastern Theater ribbon, three Bronze battle stars, and three overseas service stars.

Surviving are his wife, Katharine; a son, Robert of Mount Laurel; a daughter, Karen Smith

Star-Gazette
October 17, 1985

OBITUARY;
Eugene Lesino
Date of Death
October 8, 1985

Catalog No.
13722.16.12