

OBITUARY

Edwin Lincoln, a resident of Heath Village, died on March 4, 2015, at the age of 99. A Celebration of Life service will be held at Heath Village in Hackettstown, N.J., on Saturday, March 14, 2015, at 1:30 p.m. A reception will follow the service. Arrangements are under the direction of the Cochran Funeral Home, 905 High St., Hackettstown, N.J. 07840 Born in Detroit on July 8, 1915, Ed grew up in Wilkinsburg, Pa. He graduated from the University of Pittsburgh in 1937 and taught high school for one year. He then worked at YMCAs in Pittsburgh and Summit, N.J. For many years, Ed worked as a designer and salesman for manufacturers of sheet metal products. Ed was a resident of Mt. Tabor, N.J., and Parsippany, N.J., where he was active in the Mount Tabor Methodist Church. He served as a trustee for the Mt. Tabor Band, the Mt. Tabor Camp Meeting

Association, and the Parsippany Public Library, and was a volunteer at the Parsippany Child Day Care Center and Saint Clare's Hospital in Denville, N.J. In 1980, Ed and Lydia started spending their summers at Twin Lakes in Shohola at their cottage, "Chestnut Hill." Ed treasured the time spent there with family and friends. After moving to Heath Village in 1993, Ed joined the Trinity Methodist Church. He donated his woodworking tools to Heath Village's Shop, where he spent many hours. Ed was predeceased by his wife of 60 years, Lydia; his parents, Rollo B. Lincoln and Emma G. Lincoln, and his siblings, Martha Douds, Hazel Lang, Roy Lincoln and Janet Boynton. Ed is survived by his three daughters, Judith McCormick (Ted Fortuna) of Toronto, Ontario, Wendy Purdue (Fred) of Suffield, Conn., and Linda Lincoln (David Winninger) of London, Ontario; and by 11 grandchildren and 16 great-grandchildren. Ed will certainly be missed by his family and friends, but his life will continue to be an inspiration to them.
