

MRS. ANNIE L. LITTLE

widow of Frank B. Little of 204 Church Street, died Wednesday morning at the home of her daughter, Mrs. William A. Fleming of 403 Plane Street, from a heart attack. She was the daughter of the late Sarah and Alfred Brown residents of Hackettstown, and would have been 83 years old this September. She held membership with Trinity Methodist Church.

Beside Mrs. Fleming, she leaves another daughter, Mrs. Fern Osmun of Phillipsburg, and a granddaughter, Mrs. Philip Roesch of 403 Plane Street. A sister, Mrs. Charles Reese of 204 Church Street, also survives.

Funeral services will be held Saturday afternoon at her late home, 204 Church Street, with the Rev. Alvin A. Jones of Trinity Methodist Church, and the Rev. Robert C. Lintner of Bernardsville, a former pastor here at the Methodist Church, officiating. Interment will be in

Little Rites Saturday

Funeral services for Mrs. Anna Brown Little, 80, who died unexpectedly Tuesday night, will be held Saturday, 2 p. m., at the home of her sister, Mrs. Charles J. Reese, 204 Church street, Hackettstown. The Rev. Alvin A. Jones, pastor of Trinity Methodist Church, will officiate. Interment will be in Hackettstown Union cemetery.

Mrs. Little was stricken while at the home of a daughter, Mrs. William A. Fleming, Hackettstown. Another daughter is Mrs. Osmun, wife of Dr. A. Fern Osmun, of Phillipsburg. An only granddaughter is Mrs. Philip Roesch, of Hackettstown. Her husband, Frank B. Little, died eight years ago.

Mrs. Little had been almost a life-long resident of Hackettstown, her parents, the late Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Brown, moving there when she was but a few years old. Mrs. Little was a member of Trinity Methodist Church, the Woman's Society of Christian Service of that church and one of the early members of Hackettstown Woman's Club.
