

JOHN S. LITTLE

John S. little died at the home of his daughter in Newark on Wednesday, and his remains will be brought here for burial to-day. Mr. Little for many years one of Hackettstowns most progressive and respected citizens. In the early business life of the town no citizen had greater prominence. He was a contemporary with Dr. Silas Cook, Dr. Rea, W. L. and G.W. Johnson, Jacob Welsh, Robert Rusling, and was the sole survivor of that sturdy group who laid broad and wide the foundation of this beautiful municipality of ours. All the years of his activity were spent here. His wife died two years ago and his brother, Hon. Theodore Little, of Morristown, died but a few months ago.
