

OBITUARY

Willard Ljungquist

Willard Ljungquist, 64, of Roseto, Pa., died Feb. 24, at home.

Born May 11, 1934 in Los Angeles, Calif., he was a son of the late Nils T. and Amanda Hall Ljungquist.

He lived in Roseto, Pa., since September 1998 coming from Manhattan Beach, Calif., where he lived for 15 years, previously he lived in Hackettstown.

He was an x-ray technician for Med Partners, in Long Beach, Calif. Previously he was the office manager and a real estate broker for Weichert Realty in Hackettstown until 1982.

He served in the Army.

His wife, Audrey Ljungquist, died in 1993.

He is survived by three sons, William and David, both of Pen Argyl, Pa., and Nils of Belvidere; three daughters, Christine Ladd of Hellertown, Pa., Kathleen Ljungquist Sulzer of Roseto, Pa., and Lynn Ljungquist of Port Mugu, Calif.; one sister, Catherine of Chino Hills, Calif.; and ten grandchildren.

Services were held at Cochran Funeral Home in Hackettstown.

Interment was private.

The Star-Gazette: March 4, 1999

NAME: Willard Ljungquist

DATE OF DEATH: February 24, 1999