

Harold Loerch

MANCHESTER TWP. — Harold "Larry" Loerch died yesterday at Community Memorial Hospital in Toms River following a short illness. He was 72.

Born in Stirling, he lived most of his life in Hackettstown before moving to Whiting in 1982.

Mr. Loerch was a shipping supervisor for Allied Chemical Co., Morristown, before retiring. He was also the former manager of the Strand movie theater in Hackettstown, and had served many years as the truant officer for the Hackettstown Public School System.

An Army veteran of World War II, he was also a master sergeant of the New Jersey National Guard, Hackettstown, before retiring in 1974.

He was a member of Blue Ridge Post 164 of the American Legion, Hackettstown.

Surviving are three sons, Richard W., Arlington, Va., Larry, East Brunswick, and Michael, Lebanon; a daughter, Susan Durity, Upper Marlboro, Md.; two sisters, Ruth Ceddia, Hackettstown, and Gloria Carpenter, Downing, Pa.; and seven grandchildren.

Arrangements are by Cochran Funeral Home, 905 High St., Hackettstown.

Daily Record
September 3, 1986

OBITUARY
Harold Lorech
Date of Death
September 2, 1986

Cat. No. 141321