

WILLIAM LOMMASON
NUTLEY — William E. Lommason, 163 Highfield Lane, died suddenly at home April 9. He was 80.

Born July 10, 1893, in Townsbury, Mr. Lommason was a son of the late John T. and Jenny Marlatt Lommason. He had lived in Nutley since 1939, moving from the Hackettstown area. He was a former assistant cashier at Pompton Lake Bank and retired in 1934, when he formed and was a partner in the Lomrick Appliance Corporation in Passaic. He had been an American Red Cross driver for 15 years in the Nutley area.

Servides were conducted Friday afternoon at the Cochran Funeral Home in Hackettstown by the Rev. Dr. Lowell M. Atkinson of Trinity United Methodist Church with interment in Pequest Union Cemetery, Great Meadows.

Surviving is his widow, Mrs. Mabel Mitchell Lommason; and a cousin, Donald Lommason, Hackettstown.

Star-Gazette,
April 18, 1974

OBITUARY: William Lommason
Date of Death,
April 9, 1974