

Katharine E. Loth, library founder

Katharine E. Loth, 90, of Heath Village in Washington Township, N.J., died Tuesday, Aug. 19, in the home.

Born June 25, 1907, in Troy, N.Y., she was a daughter of the late William A. and MaryJane Egleston. She lived in Washington Township for 12 years, moving from Convent Station, N.J.

She was a member of Morristown Presbyterian Church in Morristown, N.J., for 62 years, where she was a past deacon and elder and past president of the Circle 10 organization.

She was a founder of the Morris Plains School Library and Town Library while on the PTA of Morris Plains, N.J., and was a past president of the PTA and a member of the Woman's Club and Current News Club of Morristown.

She and her husband, Rudolph, were married 67 years.

In addition to her husband, she is survived by a son, David E. of Long Valley; two daughters, Barbara L. Erickson of Morris Plains and Marjorie L. Mellor of Fayetteville, N.Y.; 11 grandchildren and 17 great-grandchildren.

Services will be held at 11 a.m. Saturday in Morristown Presbyterian Church, 57 Park Place, Morristown. Call 10 a.m. Saturday to time of services in the church. Burial will be in Hilltop Cemetery in Mendham, N.J.

The family requests memorials to Heath Village Friendship Club or the Katharine E. Loth Memorial Fund, care of the church, Morristown, N.J.

The Cochran Funeral Home, 905 High St., Hackettstown, is in charge of arrangements.

Easton Times Aug 21, '97

*Date of Death
August 19, 1997*

*Star Gazette
Dec 14, 2000*

Rudolph David Loth

Rudolph David Loth, 94th, died Dec. 4, at Heath Village where he lived for 15 years.

He celebrated his 94 birthday on Dec. 3 in the company of his immediate family.

Born Dec. 3, 1906 in Bridgeport, Connecticut, he was the son of the late Henry and Magdelina Lewis Loth.

He came to Heath Village 15 years ago from Convent Station.

He was an engineer with the New Jersey Bell Telephone Co., specializing in circuitry and pole wiring, retiring in 1966. He was then employed by the Mendham Garden Center in Mendham for another 18 years.

He was a member of the Morristown Presbyterian Church for 65 years where he was an Elder. He was past Deacon at Forest Hills Presbyterian Church in Newark, a Mason belonging to the Cincinnati Lodge #3 in Morristown and a member of the Heath Village Square Club and Men's Club.

Upon his death, he was the oldest living graduate of Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute in Troy, N.Y. He enjoyed gardening, especially working with flowers.

His wife, Katharine E. Loth died in 1997.

Survivors include his son, David E. of Long Valley; two daughters, Barbara Loth Erickson of Morris Plains and Marjorie Loth Mellor of Syracuse, N.Y.; a sister, Myrtle Loth Lindquist of Bridgeport, Conn.; 11 grandchildren and 21 great-grandchildren.

Services were held at the Morristown Presbyterian Church on 9, 1997 the Green.

Interment was at Hilltop Cemetery in Mendham.

Memorial donations may be made to the Heath Village Friendship Fund, Schooley's Mountain Road, Hackettstown, N.J. 07840.

Arrangements were by Cochran Funeral Home in Hackettstown.

*Date of Death
Dec 4, 2000*