

OBITUARY

EDWARD A. LUFF

63 years old, of 205 Grand Avenue, died suddenly Monday night, March 6, 1944, of a heart attack in the office of Dr. D. M. Shevitz of Grand Avenue, where he had gone for medical aid. He had worked all day at the American Saw Mill Machinery Company, and came home complaining of a pain in his chest.

Mr. Luff was the son of the late Nathaniel and Alice Luff of Hackettstown, where he was a lifelong resident. He had been employed by the American Saw Mill Machinery Company for the past 40 years, and was a member of Trinity Methodist Church.

Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Nellie B. Luff ;two daughters, the Misses Irene S., and Mary A., at home; two sons, Donald A. Luff, S 2/c, of the U. S. Navy, and Sgt. John R. Luff of the Air Force at Greenland; also two sisters, Mrs. Mabel Wolverton of Philadelphia; Mrs. Ethel Houck of Newark, and one brother, John W. Luff of Newark.

Funeral services will be held this afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Cochran Funeral Home with the Rev. Dr. Frederick C. Mooney officiating. Interment will be in Hackettstown Union Cemetery.

Publication unknown (Possibly Hackettstown Gazette)

NAME: Edward A. Luff

DATE OF DEATH: March 6, 1944