Peoples Bank President Dies Suddenly At Home

Funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon at the First Presbyterian Church for Aaron M. Lundy, president of The Peoples National Bank of Hackettstown who died about 11:45 p.m. Friday, August 29, 1969, at his home, 204 High Street. His age was 69.

Mr. Lundy had been in the employ of the Peoples Bank since September of 1919 and was a member of the Half-Century Club of the New Jersey Bankers Association. He had been president of the bank since January of 1968.

His death came suddenly of an apparent heart attack. He had been a patient recently at Warren Hospital for surgery on his knee and was recuperating at his home when he suffered the fatal illness.

Squad Charter Member

Mr. Lundy was a charter member of the Hackettstown First Aid & Rescue Squad when it was formed in 1951 and served as president in 1953. He had also had a term as assistant chief and had been treasurer of the volunteer organization for the past several years.

His other memberships included a past master of the Masonic lodge and was secretary of the Union Cemetery Association.

A native of Hackettstown, Mr. Lundy was born July 28, 1900, a son of the late David and Mary Mariatt Lundy. He was a graduate of Hackettstown High School and Churchman's Business College, Easton, Pa.

Held Several Posts

In the bank he moved up thru several positions, becoming assistant cashier in 1928, cashier in June 1949, executive vice president in 1964 and president in January of 1968. He had been a member of the board of directors since 1952.

Surviving are his wife, the former Viola Oglethorp, and two sons, Aaron D. and Robert A. Lundy, both of Hackettstown; also four grandchildren.

His pastor, the Rev. August J. Kling, conducted the funeral with burial following in Union Cemetery.

At the Cochran Funeral Home on Monday evening, Rotary Club rites were held at 7 o'clock, Rescue Squad service at 7:30 and Masonic rites at 8 o'clock.

The family requested that donations be made to the Hackettstown Rescue Squad in lieu of flowers.
