

OBITUARY

LOUIS R. LUSARDI

HACKETTSTOWN — Louis R. Lusardi of 112 East Prospect Ave., 66-year-old former luncheonette owner, died suddenly last Thursday at Hackettstown Community Hospital.

Born Aug. 1, 1907 in Italy, Mr. Lusardi was a son of the late Eugene and Albina Lusardi. He came to the United States at the age of 16 and had resided in Hackettstown for the past 45 years. He retired in 1954 as owner of Lou's Soda Shop and worked for 10 years as manager of the sample book department at Middletown Leather Company. At the time of his death he was a part time employee at Dad and Lad's clothing store here.

A member of St. Mary's Roman Catholic Church of the Assumption, he served there as an usher for many years. He was a Sir Knight with Pope John XXII General Assembly, Fourth Degree Knights of Columbus of Warren County. He was also a member of Joyce Kilmer Council No. 2483 in Hackettstown as a Third Degree Knight. He served as secretary for 25 years of the Loyal Order of Moose of Hackettstown.

Services were conducted Monday morning from the Metzler-Scala Memorial Home to a Mass of Christian Burial at St. Mary's Church celebrated by the Rev. Stephen Bielen. Interment was in Hackettstown Union Cemetery.

Survivors are his widow, Mrs. Irene Benedict Lusardi; two daughters, Mrs. Audrey Hinkel of Easton, Pa. and Mrs. Claire Clark of Dale City, Va.; two sisters, Mrs. Adelgesia Ratti and Mrs. Clotilda Musa, both of Italy; and six grandchildren.
