

Harold E. Madden

Private services are being planned for Harold E. Madden, 56, of Hackettstown, who was dead on arrival at Hackettstown Community Hospital Sept. 3, after a short illness.

He was born in Newark and lived there and in West Orange for many years, moving to Hackettstown 24 years ago.

He was employed as a quality control manager at Symtron in Fair Lawn. He served in the Air Force from 1950 to 1954.

He is survived by his wife, the former Patricia Coyle; three sons, Paul of Phillipsburg, Sean of Toms River and Brian, at home; three daughters, Kathleen Madden and Maureen Altamirano, both of New York City, and Raegan, at home; two brothers, Robert and Michael, both of Tampa, Fla.; one sister, Marie Schrager of Tampa, Fla.; and 14 grandchildren.

The Scala Memorial Home of Hackettstown was in charge of arrangements.

The Star-Gazette: September 12, 1991

NAME: Harold E. Madden

DATE OF DEATH: September 3, 1991