

OBITUARY

Sarah "Sally" Madlinger

A Mass of Christian Burial was said for Sarah "Sally" Madlinger, 79, of Hackettstown, who died May 17 at the Care Center of Lopatcong after a long illness.

She was born in New York City and lived in Queens for most of her life, moving to Hackettstown in 1962.

She was a dietary aide at Heath Village, Washington Township, Morris, until retiring seven years ago.

She belonged to St. Mary's Church of the Assumption.

Mrs. Madlinger is survived by her husband, William, to whom she had been married 43 years; three daughters, Jeanne Conlon of Den-ville, Barbara Faller of Valley Stream and Maureen Maze of McLean, Va.; one sister, Kathleen O'Grady of Queens, N.Y.; ten grand-children and three great-grandchildren. One daughter, Patricia Madlinger, died in 1962.

Interment was in Our Lady of the Mountain Cemetery, Schooley's Mountain. The Scala Memorial Home of Hackettstown was in charge of arrangements.

The Star-Gazette: May 23, 1991

NAME: Sarah "Sally" Madlinger

DATE OF DEATH: May 17, 1991