

OBITUARY

Fruzina Rose Malet

Fruzina Rose Malet, 85, of Hackettstown died May 11 at the Care Center of Lopatcong in Lopatcong Township.

Born in Brooklyn, N.Y., Miss Malet was the daughter of the late Albert and Josephine Pepe Malet. She lived in Hackettstown for 10 years, having moved from Staten Island, N.Y. Prior to that she lived in Brooklyn.

She was a homemaker.

She attended Crestfield Day Center of Belvidere and Phillipsburg. She was formerly a member of Mary Queen of Heaven Roman Catholic Church in Brooklyn and was a member of its Altar Society for 40 years.

She was a member of St. Theodore's Roman Catholic Church in Port Murray and the church's Rosary Society.

She is survived by a niece, Theresa Saska of Hackettstown, with whom she lived; and two grand-nephews, Christian Peter Saska and Zachary John Saska, both at home.

A Mass of Christian Burial was celebrated at 10 a.m. May 14 at St. Theodore's Roman Catholic Church. Interment was in St. John's Cemetery, Queens, N.Y.

Arrangements were by the Cochran Funeral Home, 905 High St., Hackettstown.
