

Vito F. Manno

HACKETTSTOWN — Vito F. Manno, 105 Sixth St., died Tuesday at Newton Memorial Hospital after a short illness. He was 79.

Born in Igiga, Sicily, he lived in Maplewood before moving here 24 years ago.

A retired butcher, Mr. Manno had been employed by Pathmark Supermarkets, Woodbridge. He was a member of Local 464 Amalgamated Meat Cutters, AFL-CIO.

Surviving are his wife, Grace; two sons, Vincent P., Maplewood, and Vito S., Randolph Township; a brother, Philip, Mount Olive Township; a sister, Josephine Varro, Mirimar, Fla.; and 12 grandchildren.

Services will be held Saturday at 8:45 a.m. from the Cochran Funeral Home, here, followed by a Liturgy of Christian Burial to be offered at St. Mary's Church of the Assumption, here, at 9:30 a.m.

Daily Record,
February 26, 1981

OBITUARY: Vito F. Manno
Date of Death,
February 24, 1981