

ELINOR R. MANOZZIHACKETTSTOWN

Funeral services were held Saturday for Elinor R. Manozzi, 61, who was found dead in her home Thursday.

Her body was found in the bedroom of her apartment at 35 Arthur Terrace by Sgt. John Seabeck of the Hackettstown Police, who had responded to a call from the superintendent of the apartment complex. Neighbors had reported not seeing Mrs. Manozzi for several days.

Born June 2, 1915 in Boston, Mass., she was a daughter of the late Daniel and Mary Roach Ryan. She had lived in Hackettstown two years, moving from Boston.

She was a retired service representative for Boston Telephone and Telegraph.

She was a member of St. Mary's Church of the Assumption, Hackettstown.

She is survived by her husband, Paul of Livingston, and a son, Paul of Hackettstown.

Services were held in the Cochran Funeral Home, 905 High St., Hackettstown, conducted by Rev. Stephen A. Bielen of St. Mary's Church.

Interment was in Hackettstown Union Cemetery.
