

OBITUARY

We chronicle the death of James Martin, who died on Friday morning of last week, at 8 o'clock, in the 69th year of his age. Mr. Martin was born on the farm now occupied by Hiram White, below Beattystown, in this county, where the earlier portion of his life was spent. Some few years since Mr. Martin purchased the farm now occupied by John Sharp, near this place, where he remained until he engaged in business in this borough. He was always recognized as an honest, upright citizen.
