

OBITUARY

Clark W. Mayberry

Clark W. Mayberry, 80, of Little Brook Nursing Home in Califon, formerly of Washington, died March 1 in Hackettstown Community Hospital.

Born in Rockport on May 27, 1920, he was the son of the late Elmer and Ida Mae Rymon Mayberry.

He was a tool and dye maker for Picatinny Arsenal in Dover for over 30 years.

A graduate of Hackettstown High School, he served in the Navy during WW II. He was a gunner's mate serving on the US Nelson DD263 and the US Harry F. Bauer. The Bauer was torpedoed on April 6, 1945 in the East China Sea. The Bauer also suffered three Kamikaze suicide plane attacks June 6, 1945 in Okinawa.

He was an avid stock car fan and enjoyed Scottish music and history. He belonged to the American Legion Post 103,

Washington, and the VFW Post 6701 in Washington.

His wife, Antonia Galcik, died in 1998.

Survivors include two sons, Clark Jr. of Washington and Ronald of Saylorsburg, Pa; two daughters, Mariane Hotchkins of Glen Gardner and Elizabeth Mayberry of Phillipsburg; two sisters, Sadie Miller of Washington and Emily Bundy of Karrsville; five grandchildren and three great-grandchildren. Two brothers, Melvin and Elmer, a sister, Nellie Raub and a grandson predeceased him.

Funeral services were private. Arrangements were by DeVoe Funeral Service, Washington. Interment was private. Memorials to Washington VFW Post 6701, Springtown Road, Washington, N.J. 07882.

Clark W. Mayberry

CALIFON — Clark W. Mayberry died March 1, 2001, at Hackettstown Hospital. He was 80.

Born in Rockport, he was a son of Elmer and Ida Mae Rymon Mayberry. He was a resident of Little Brook Nursing Home in Califon and lived previously in Washington.

He was a graduate of Hackettstown High School.

He was a U.S. Navy veteran of World War II, serving as a gunner's mate on the U.S.S. Nelson DD263 and the U.S.S. Harry F. Bauer. The Bauer was torpedoed in 1945 in the East China Sea and suffered three Kamikaze plane attacks in 1945 in Okinawa.

He was an avid stock car racing fan and enjoyed Scottish music and history.

He belonged to American Legion Post 103 in Washington and VFW Post 6701 in Washington.

His wife, Antonia Galcik Mayberry, died in 1998.

Two brothers, Melvin and Elmer Mayberry; a sister, Nellie Raub and a grandson died earlier.

He is survived by two sons, Clark Mayberry Jr. of Washington and Ronald Mayberry of Saylorsburg, Pa.; two daughters, Mariane Hotchkins of Glen Gardner and Elizabeth Mayberry of Phillipsburg; two sisters, Sadie Miller of Washington and Emily Bundy of Karrsville; five grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

Services and burial were private. Memorials can be made to Washington VFW Post 6701, Springtown Road, Washington 07882.

The Star-Gazette: March 8, 2001

NAME: Mayberry, Clark W.

DATE OF DEATH: March 1, 2001

~~Excerpt from March 3, 2001~~

Warren Reporter: March 10, 2001

OVER