

Robert B. McAllister Jr.

Robert B. McAllister Jr., 87, of Washington, died April 16 at the Care Center of Brakley Park, following a long illness.

He was born Sept. 1, 1908, in Baltimore, Md., and lived there and in Washington, D.C., before moving to New Jersey.

Mr. McAllister was employed by the G.C. Murphy Department Store in Washington; was owner of Groff's Department Store, also in Washington; and worked as a painter and the New Jersey Hospital for Chest Diseases in Glen Gardner, retiring in 1976.

He was a former member and past president of the Washington Kiwanis Club; and a 50-year member of Mansfield Masonic Lodge 36 in Washington.

He is survived by his wife, Frances Owens McAllister, with whom he celebrated their 65th wedding anniversary Nov. 23, 1995; one daughter, Mary Janice McAllister of Washington; one son, Robert B. McAllister 3rd, of Santa Ana, Calif.; one sister, Mattie May Flowers of Irvington, Va.; three grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

Cremation was by the H.G. Smith Crematory in Stroudsburg, Pa.

The family requests that memorial donations be made to the Washington Emergency Squad, P.O. Box 4, Washington, NJ 07882.

The DeVoe Funeral Service Inc. of Washington was in charge of arrangements.
