OBITUARY

Jean P. McCoshen

Jean P.McCoshen, 75, of Hackettstown, died Oct. 3 in St. Clares Hospital in Denville.

Born June 28, 1927 in Summit, she was the daughter of the late William and Elsie Carlson Pellet.

She was an RN for over 40 years at Mountainside Hospital in Montclair.

She was a graduate of the Mountainside Nurse Cadet program for World War II.

She was a NJ All State Band during her High School days at Summit High School. She had a life long love of music. She was an avid gardener and loved to read.

Survivors include her husband of 45 years, Roger; three daughters, Karen and her husband, Kurt Nyenhouse of Mt. Bethel, Pa., Marjorie and husband Brian Haley of Simi Valley, Calif., and Marianne McCoshen of Hackettstown; grandchildren, Christopher, Carlo, Bridgette, Leah, Genny and Grace,; a brother, Bradford Pellet of Washington, D.C.; and three sisters Ann Dursch of Anacortes, Wash., Elaine Ketterer of Canton, Ohio and Dorothy Reutlinger of Florham Park.

Services were held from the DeVoe Funeral Service, Inc. in Washington.

Interment was at the Fair Mount Cemetery in Chatham.

The Star-Gazette: October 10, 2002

NAME: Jean P. McCoshen

DATE OF DEATH: October 3, 2002