

OBITUARY

Death of Mrs. Anna McCracken.

Mrs. Anna McCracken, widow of the late William McCracken, died, at her home, on High Street, Tuesday evening, after an illness of several weeks. She is survived by a large family of sons and daughters as follows: George and Jacob, of Dover; Alpheus, of Camden; Rheul, Lewis C., Joseph, and C. B. of this place; Mrs. Thomas Bobbins, of Hoboken; Mrs. Gurnsey, of New York, and Mrs. Joseph Klotz, of this place. For many years she and her husband lived on the Dellicker farm, at the foot of Schooley's Mountain. Then they moved to the Warren House, which they conducted several years. A few years ago she moved to her late home, on High Street, where she and her husband, who died a few years ago, lived a retired life.

The Warren Republican: February 10, 1899

NAME: McCracken, Anna (nee Clawson)

DATE OF DEATH: February 7, 1899