

MRS. JOHN McDONOUGH
HACKETTSTOWN — Services were held Saturday morning in the Scala Memorial Funeral Home, for Mrs. Catherine M. McDonough, 86, of 12 Maude Lane, who died Feb. 12 in Hackettstown Community Hospital.

A Liturgy of Christian Burial followed in Our Lady of the Mount Catholic Church, Long Valley, of which she was a member.

Born in Pittsburgh, Pa., she was a daughter of the late Patrick and Catherine Gormley. She lived most of her life in Pittsburgh and the last seven years in Hackettstown.

She was also a member of the Catholic Woman's Club, Pittsburgh, and the Rosary and Altar Society of St. Bernard's Catholic Church, Lebanon.

Her husband, John McDonough, died in 1968. She was preceded in death by two daughters, Mrs. Catherine Zimmer in 1972 and Mrs. Margaret Gustavson in 1966.

Survivors include three daughters, Mrs. Gertrude Braun, Parsippany; Mrs. Dorothy King, Pittsburgh, and Mrs. Jean Walsh, Hackettstown; two sons, John E. Indianapolis, Ind., and James R., Pittsburgh; a brother, Edward Gormley, Pittsburgh; 26 grandchildren and 27 great-grandchildren.

Interment was in Our Lady of the Mount Cemetery.

Star-Gazette,
 February 20, 1975

OBITUARY: Catherine M. McDonough
 Date of Death,
 February 12, 1975