

ROBERT DAVID McGINNIS*HACKETTSTOWN

Funeral services were held Monday for Robert David McGinnis, 67, of Riverside Gardens Apartments, who died May 5 at Hackettstown Community Hospital.

Born in Midvale, Utah, he lived here for two years, moving from Dover. He retired in 1972 as a clerk for Two Guys Department Store.

He is survived by his widow, the former Belle Van Dyke; a daughter, Mrs. Kay Henderson of Hackensaak; a son, Robert of Kinnelon; two stepdaughters, Mrs. Kenneth Jacobs of Port Murray and Mrs. John Bruning of Lake Forest; two sisters, Mrs. A. Lockey Dalberg of Hemlock Farms, Hawley, Pa., and Mrs. Albert B. Tompane of North Chatham, Mass., and four grandchildren.

Services were in the Morgan Funeral Home, Ntcong, with the Rev. Raymond E. Little of the Stanhope Presbyterian Church officiating.

Interment was in Stanhope Union Cemetery.

From;
Star-Gazette, May 12, 1977.

Obituary,
Robert David McGinnis,
Date of Death, May 5, 1977.