

OBITUARY

Jean Stobie McMann, 91, of Hackettstown, N.J., formerly of Paramus, N.J., passed away on Tuesday, May 21, 2013, at Heath Village in Hackettstown. Visitation will be held on Friday, May 24, from 2 to 5 p.m. at William J. Leber Funeral Home, 15 Furnace Road, (corner of Rt. 206) in Chester, N.J. A funeral service will be held on Saturday, May 25, 2013, at 10 a.m. at the funeral home. Interment will follow at George Washington Memorial Park, Paramus, N.J. Jean was born July 19, 1921 in Glasgow, Scotland. She was the daughter of John and Elspet (Redpath) Gall. Mrs. McMann was a secretary for the Paramus Board of Education. She also worked as a sales person for Cornell's, A&S, and Macy's. She was a charter member of Trinity United Presbyterian Church in Paramus, N.J. and was currently a member of the Trinity United Methodist Church in Hackettstown. She worked as a volunteer in the gift shop at Valley Hospital in Ridgewood, N.J. While at Heath Village, she was an active member and participant in their many activities. Mrs. McMann was very proud of her Scottish heritage, including wearing her kilts and listening to the music of bagpipes. She also enjoyed traveling, especially cruising to Bermuda. Above all, she enjoyed spending time with her family and friends. She is survived by her daughter, Lois Fleming and her husband, Gary, of Budd Lake, N.J.; her granddaughter, Kimberly Fleming and her grandson, Brian Fleming, and his wife, Marissa. Also, she will be missed by her dear friend, Walter Hampson. She was predeceased by her husband of 48 years, Alfred McMann, and by her twin sister, Betty Lange. Donations may be made to the American Cancer Society or Trinity United Methodist Church in Hackettstown. For online condolences and information visit www.williamjleberfh.com.
