

Michael John Messler, masonry worker

Michael John Messler, 33, of Hackettstown, died Friday, June 20.

He was a mason and worked for Long Valley Masonry, Long Valley.

Born July 18, 1963, in Newton, he was a son of Carol Carpenter Hammell of Hackettstown and James E. Messler Sr. of Freehold, N.J. He lived in Hackettstown most of his life.

In addition to his mother and father, he is survived by his stepfather, Robert A. Hammell of Hackettstown; a daughter, Megan K. of Mullica Hill, N.J.; two brothers, James E. Jr. of Stroudsburg, Pa., and Edward Scott of Hackettstown; and three nieces.

Graveside services will be held at 2:30 p.m. Wednesday at the Fairmount Cemetery, Fairmount, N.J. Call from 7 to 9 p.m. Tuesday at the Cochran Funeral Home, 905 High St., Hackettstown.

Michael Messler

HACKETTSTOWN — Michael John Messler, 33, died Friday, June 20, in Hackettstown.

Born July 18, 1963, in Newton, he was a son of Carol Carpenter Hammell of Hackettstown and James E. Messler Sr. of Freehold. He lived in Hackettstown most of his life.

He was a mason and worked for Long Valley Masonry, Long Valley.

In addition to his mother and father, he is survived by his stepfather, Robert A. Hammell of Hackettstown; a daughter, Megan K. of Mullica Hill; two brothers, James E. Jr. of Stroudsburg, Pa. and Edward Scott of Hackettstown; and three nieces.

Graveside services were held at the Fairmount Cemetery, Fairmount. The Cochran Funeral Home, Hackettstown, was in charge of arrangements.

The Express-Times: June 23, 1997

NAME: Michael John Messler

DATE OF DEATH: June 20, 1997

The Star-Gazette: July 3, 1997