

Charles E. Miller, M.D.

HACKETTSTOWN — Charles E. Miller, M.D., 79, of Hackettstown, died Saturday, Nov. 22, 2003, in Hackettstown Community Hospital.

Born on April 24, 1924 in Philadelphia, he was a son of the late Dr. Calvin E. and Zora Saunders Miller.

He was the husband of the former Jacqueline Munley.

He was a self employed family physician in Hackettstown for 55 years, having delivered over 2,000 local children at both Newton Hospital and Morristown Memorial Hospital.

He served in the Army from 1943 to 1946, having served in World War II and Korea as head of his M.A.S.H. Unit, in the 3335th Service Command Unit.

Dr. Miller was a founding physician of the Hackettstown Community Hospital in Hackettstown.

He was a graduate of Lehigh University in Bethlehem and Jefferson Medical College in Philadelphia, having served his internship at the Jefferson Medical Hospital in Philadelphia.

He was a member of the First Presbyterian Church of Hackettstown where he served as an elder of the church and a Sunday school teacher.

He was a diplomat of Family Practice Medicine and a past president of the Warren County Medical Society.

He is survived by his wife; two sons, Brent of Hackettstown, and Robert, M.D. of Shelburne Falls, Mass.; two daughters, Susan of Alexandria, Va., and Lisa of Oxford; three grandchildren, Nicholas, Zachary and Lauren.

A memorial service was held at the church, 298 Main St., Hackettstown.

Burial was in the Union Cemetery, Hackettstown. Arrangements were by Cochran Funeral Home, Hackettstown.

In addition to flowers, donations may be made to the church building fund, Hackettstown, N.J. 07840.

Charles E. Miller

Charles E. Miller, M.D., 79, of Hackettstown, died Saturday, November 22, 2003, in Hackettstown Community Hospital.

Born: April 24, 1924 in Philadelphia, a son of the late Dr. Calvin E. and Zora Saunders Miller.

Personal: He was the husband of the former Jacqueline Munley.

He was a self employed family Physician in Hackettstown for 55 years, having delivered over 2000 local children at both Newton Hospital and Morristown Memorial Hospital.

He served in the Army from 1943 to 1946, having served in World War II and Korea as head of his M.A.S.H. Unit, in the 3335th Service Command Unit.

Dr. Miller was a founding Physician of the Hackettstown Community Hospital in Hackettstown.

He was a graduate of Lehigh University in Bethlehem and Jefferson Medical College in Philadelphia, having served his internship at the Jefferson Medical Hospital in Philadelphia.

Memberships: He was a member of the First Presbyterian Church of Hackettstown where he served as an elder of the church and a Sunday school teacher.

He was a diplomat of Family Practice Medicine and a past president of the Warren County Medical Society.

Survivors: his wife; two sons, Brent of Hackettstown, and Robert, M.D. of Shelburne Falls, Mass.; two daughters, Susan of Alexandria, Va., and Lisa of Oxford, NJ; three grandchildren, Nicholas, Zachary and Lauren.

Services: A 12 p.m. Memorial Service will be held Tuesday in the church, 298 Main Street, Hackettstown. Call 4 to 8 p.m. Monday in the Cochran Funeral Home, 905 High Street, Hackettstown. Burial will be in the Union Cemetery, Hackettstown.

Memorials: In addition to flowers, donations may be made to the church building fund, Hackettstown, NJ 07840.

THE WARREN REPORTER

DECEMBER 4, 2003

Charles E. Miller, MD

Date of Death

(Sat) November 22, 2003

Easton Express Times
November 24, 2003