

OBITUARY

James R. Miller Jr. January 22, 1964 - December 29, 2017 James R. "Jimmy" Miller Jr., 53, of Hackettstown, N.J., passed away early Friday morning, December 29, 2017, at his dad's house, where he had been staying recently. Born January 22, 1964, Jimmy was the son of James R. Miller of Glen Gardner, N.J., and the late Carol A. Miller. He was a 1982 graduate of Voorhees High School. He was a truck driver for Mid Atlantic Express in Hackettstown for 26 years. Jimmy loved gardening, growing his famous hot peppers that nobody else could eat! He loved raising chickens and other animals over the years. He will be greatly missed by his little dog, Eve, who he enjoyed every day. Jimmy was a great guy with a Big Heart! He had a laugh like no other and a memory like nobody else! He was a loving son, brother and uncle who will be greatly missed by everyone. He was preceded in death by his maternal and paternal grandparents, his mother, and his loving wife, Barbara. My heart is broken to lose my brother - my only comfort is you're not alone. Surviving are his sister, Sandy Yannotta and brother-in-law, Rob, of New Milford Pa.; niece, Rhiannon and Steve Moxen, great-nephew, Jacob of South Gibson, Pa.; nephew, Robert Yannotta and great-nephew, Gabriel; brother, Jeff Miller and sister-in-law, Eva, nieces, Sarah and Kaleigh of Hopatcong, N.J., and several aunts, uncles and cousins. All services will be private and at the convenience of the family. In lieu of flowers, please send donations in Jim's name to Deborah Hospital, Browns Mill, NJ.
