EDWIN S. MILLSPAUGH
 HACKETTSTOWN —

Edwin S. Millspaugh, 82, a resident at Heath Village, Schooley's Mountain Road, died Sunday, May 29, in the nursing unit there following a long illness.

Mr. Millspaugh retired in 1967 as president of Homboldt Dye Works, Newark. He had lived in Hackettstown eight years, moving here from Nutley.

He was born July 30, 1894, in Newark, the son of the late Willet and Mary Stiger Millspaugh. He was a 1917 graduate of the Philadelphia College of Textiles and Sciences.

Mr. Millspaugh was an elder of the Newark Presbyterian Church for more than 40 years and was a member of Hackettstown's First Presbyterian Church. He was a charter member of the American Association of Textile Colorists.

Surviving are his wife, Katharine Wahl Millspaugh of Heath Village; a son, the Rev. Robert Millspaugh of Coshocton, Ohio, and one grandson.

Memorial services will be held at the convenience of the family. Arrangements are being made by the Cochran Funeral Home.

The family has requested that memorial contributions be made to the Friendship Fund at Heath Village.
