

Julius Mincevich

Julius Mincevich of Spring Hill, Fla., formerly of Hackettstown, died Jan. 1. He was 68.

Born in 1933 in Warren County, he is the son of the late Julius and Mary (Kuczynsky) Mincevich. He lived in Spring Hill since 1967, coming from Hackettstown.

He was employed by Alterman Trucking Company in Florida, retiring in 1994. Previously he worked for Imperial Rubber in Hackettstown, and was an auto mechanic for Hackettstown Auto Parts.

He is a 1953 graduate of Hackettstown High School. He played semi-pro football for Newton-Dover. He served in the Army for three years.

He is survived by his wife, Diane (Russell) of Spring Hill, formerly of Budd Lake; four children, Cheryl Ann Nelson, Timothy, Edward and Jacqueline; four brothers, Frank, Eugene, Albert Mincevich, all of Hackettstown, and Walter of Arizona; two sisters, Wanda Stephens of Andover and Veronica Mincevich of Arizona; and seven grandchildren.

Services were held in Florida. Local arrangements were by Cochran Funeral Home, Hackettstown.

The Star-Gazette: January 17, 2002

NAME: Mincevich, Julius

DATE OF DEATH: January 1, 2002