

Walter "Butch" Mincevich

WINSLOW, Ariz. — Walter "Butch" Mincevich passed away on Saturday, Aug. 19, 2006. He was 63.

Butch was born in Philipsburg, New Jersey on March 12, 1943 a son Julius Mincevich and Mary (Kuczynski) Mincevich.

After undergoing two knee-replacement surgeries, Butch took a disability retirement from the BNSF Railroad in 2001, where he was employed for 24 years as a Track Equipment Maintainer/Mechanic. Those who knew him were often touched by his unprejudiced acceptance of all people, genuine concern for all children, his quick wit and humor, and his personal fondness of being surrounded by family and friends. He enjoyed many hobbies and interests, one of his favorite being hosting outdoor gatherings at his home with his wife Linda. He was often times remembered being closely followed and assisted by one of his closest companion, Mickey Dog. He will forever be loved and missed by all who were blessed to have known and been loved by him.

He is survived by his beloved wife of 38 years, Linda; daughter, Lucinda "Missy" (Dan) Clark; son Corey and "adopted" daughter, Deidre, all of Winslow, Ariz.; his brothers, Francis and Albert; sisters, Wanda of New Jersey, and Veronica of Mohave Valley, Ariz.; grandson, Dan Clark III, of Winslow, and granddaughter, Kamry Clark, of Gilbert, Ariz. He was also loved and known as Uncle and Grandpa Butch to many other children over the years.

In honor of his wishes, his hair will be donated to Locks of Love. Family and friends are invited to share in the celebration of his Eternal Union with our Heavenly Father and Lord Savior.
