

OBITUARY

HACKETTSTOWN — Isobel Minier died Sept. 19 at her home after a long illness. She was 58.

She was born Oct. 13, 1933, in Parkersburg, W.Va. to Lois (Hull) and the late Walton Barr Killough. She lived in Hawaii and Cranberry Lake before moving to Hackettstown 32 years ago.

Mrs. Minier was a case worker for the Domestic Abuse and Rape Crisis Center in Oxford. Prior to that she was a supervisor for the Senior Citizens Outreach Program of the Warren County Office on Aging in Belvidere. She was also a sixth-, seventh- and eighth-grade teacher at Hackettstown Middle School for several years.

She received a bachelor's degree from Bryn Mawr College in Bryn Mawr, Pa., in 1955. She received a teaching certificate from Centenary College in 1980 and gerontology certification from the College of St.

Elizabeth in Convent Station in 1987.

She was a member of the Hackettstown Community Choir, the Hackettstown Community Hospital Civic Advisory Council and the Warren County Human Services Advisory Council. She was a past president of the Warren County Medical Society Women's Auxiliary, the Hackettstown Community Hospital Auxiliary and the Central School PTA in Great Meadows. She was also a former coordinator of the Warren County Literacy Volunteers.

Survivors include a son, John of Raleigh, N.C.; a daughter, Sarah of Snaford, N.C.; her mother, Lois Killough of Hackettstown; a brother, William Killough; and a sister, Lolyne Buss of La Grange Park, Ill.

Memorial contribution can be made to the Karen Ann Quinlan Center of Hope, 19 Church St., Newton, N.J. 07860.

Arrangements by the Cochran Funeral Home, 905 High St., Hackettstown.

The Star-Gazette: September 24, 1992

NAME: Isobel Minier (nee Killough)

DATE OF DEATH: September 19, 1992

Isobel Minier

HACKETTSTOWN — Isobel Minier, 58, of Canal Way died Saturday, Sept. 19, in her home after a long illness.

Born Oct. 13, 1933, in Parkersburg, W.V., she was a daughter of Lois Hull Killough of Hackettstown and the late Walton Barr Killough.

She lived in Hackettstown for the past 32 years, moving there from Cranberry Lake, N.J. Before that, she lived in Hawaii.

She was a case worker for the Domestic and Rape Crisis Center in Oxford Township. Before that, she worked for the Warren County Office on Aging in White Township, as a supervisor of the Senior Citizen Outreach Program. She was also a teacher at Hackettstown Middle School for several years.

She was a member of the Hackettstown Community Choir, the Hackettstown Community Hospital Civic Advisory Council and the Warren County Human Services Advisory Council.

She was a past president of the Women's Auxiliary of the Warren County Medical Society, past president of the Hackettstown Community Hospital Auxiliary, former coordinator of the Warren County Literacy Volunteers and past president of the Central School PTA in Great Meadows, N.J.

She received a bachelor of arts degree from Bryn Mawr College in Bryn Mawr, Pa. in 1955, a teacher's certificate from Centenary College in Hackettstown in 1980 and gerontology certificates in 1987 from the College of St. Elizabeth in Convent Station, N.J.

In addition to her mother, she is survived by a son, John, of Raleigh, N.C.; a daughter, Sarah, of Sanford, N.C.; a brother, William Killough; and a sister, Lolyne Buss of La Grange Park, Ill.

Services will be held at 11 a.m. Tuesday in Waterloo Village Methodist Church in Byram Township, N.J. Interment will be private.

The Cochran Funeral Home at 905 High St. in Hackettstown is in charge of arrangements. Calling hours will be from 7 to 9 p.m. Monday.

Contributions may be made to the Karen Ann Quinlan Center of Hope, 19 Church St. Newton, N.J. 07860.

Express-Times: September 20, 1992