

W. Misewich

Funeral services were held Monday from the Scala Memorial Home, Hackettstown, to St. Mary's Church of the Assumption, Hackettstown, where a Liturgy of Christian Burial was held for Walter Misewich, 59, of 510 Fourth St., who died Thursday at Hackettstown Community Hospital.

Mr. Misewich was born in Wilkes-Barre, Pa. He had resided in Wilkes-Barre and in Linden prior to moving to Hackettstown 22 years ago.

He was a quality control inspector for M&M Mars Inc.

A member of St. Mary's Church of the Assumption and the Joyce Kilmer Council Knights of Columbus, 2483 in Hackettstown, he was a charter member of the Veterans of Foreign Wars of Parson's, Pa.

He was a World War II Army veteran.

Mr. Misewich is survived by his wife, Lillian; one son, Robert, a student at St. Leo's College in St. Leo, Fla.; one daughter, Mrs. Marcia Auerbach of Clearwater, Fla.; five brothers, Leo of Warrior Run, Pa., Frank and Chet, both of Wilkes-Barre, Joseph of Forty Fort, Pa., and Phillip of Ashley, Pa.; one sister, Mrs. Adele Gorski of Pender, Pa., and two grandchildren.

The Forum,
December 17, 1980.

OBITUARY:
Walter Misewich.
Date of Death,
December 11, 1980.