

OBITU

Mary Ellen Moody, of Washington

Mary Ellen Moody, 85, of Washington died Wednesday, Oct. 18, in Warren Hospital.

She worked in the medical department at Hoffman LaRoche Corp. in Belvidere, retiring in 1978. Before that, she was a manager at Springer Hoisery Mills in Washington until it closed.

Born Jan. 31, 1915, in Hillside, N.J., she was a daughter of the late Michael and Mary Ellen Smith. She was raised in Port Murray, moving to Washington in 1950.

She was a member of St. Joseph's Roman Catholic Church in Washington.

She was a graduate of Hackettstown High School.

Her husband, Alfred, died in 1976. Her long-time companion, James Donohue, also died earlier.

She is survived by nieces and nephews.

A joint Mass of Christian Burial with her sister-in-law, Loretta Smith, will be celebrated at 9:30 a.m. Monday in St. Joseph's Roman Catholic Church, 200 W. Carlton Ave., Washington. Call from 2 to 4 p.m. and from 7 to 9 p.m. Sunday in the DeVoe Funeral Service, 136 W. Washington Ave., Washington.

Burial will be in St. Joseph's Cemetery.

The family requests memorials to the church Memorial Fund, Washington, NJ 07882 or to the Washington Emergency Squad, P.O. Box 4, Washington, NJ 07882.
