

OBITUARY

Elizabeth Betty Morrow died Monday, August 20, 2012 at the House of the Good Shepherd in Hackettstown, NJ where she resided for eight years. Born: Betty was born in Newark, NJ on April 15, 1925 to the late John and Elizabeth Van Natta Luker. Personal: She was a former resident of High Bridge and Lebanon before moving to Clinton Township in 1950. Betty was employed by Ethicon in Somerville in the production and training departments before retiring in 1983. Before Ethicon, she worked as a secretary for B.W. Farrington Lumber Company in Annandale, NJ. Betty was a graduate from High Bridge High School where she was the first female editor of the school newspaper. Memberships: She was member of the Stewart Chapter of the Order of the Eastern Star and a member of the Lebanon Reformed Church where she was a former Sunday school teacher. Survivors: Betty is survived by her daughter, Judith Ours and her husband Stuart of Washington, NJ; a grandson, Stephen S. Ours and his wife Laura of Washington, DC; a granddaughter, Meredith M. Ours and her partner Cora Stryker of Richmond, CA; and a sister-in-law, Laura Arlington of Santa Fe, NM. She is predeceased by her husband, Floyd W. Morrow; a son, William Floyd Morrow; two brothers; and one sister. Services: Services will be Saturday, August 25, 2012 at 12 p.m. in the Coughlin Funeral Home, 15 Academy Street, Califon, NJ. Friends may call one hour prior to the service. The Interment will be in the Lower Valley Union cemetery in Califon. Memorials: Memorial contributions may be made to the Lebanon Reformed Church, 100 Brunswick Ave., Lebanon, NJ 08833 or to the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation, 1541 Alta Drive, Whitehall, PA 18052. For online condolences visit www.coughlinfuneralhome.com.

The Express Times: August 22, 2012

NAME: Morrow, Elizabeth (nee Luker)

DATE OF DEATH: August 20, 2012